Search Committee

Membership

The Committee shall be established by the department/program faculty in consultation with the Dean. Search Committees will normally include a majority of Foothill-De Anza tenured faculty who are experts in the discipline or a related discipline. When clear and compelling academic and/or professional circumstances warrant, other faculty including contract and part-time faculty may be included on the Search Committee after consultation between the President of the Academic Senate and the college President. Special circumstances may include but are not limited to the addition of discipline expertise and enhancing the diversity of the committee. The Search Committee may also include other members from outside the department/program as deemed appropriate by the Committee. The Division Dean shall forward a list of faculty designated to serve on the Search Committee to the Academic Senate. All faculty appointments to Search Committees must be confirmed by the Academic Senate.

Membership

The Search Committee shall be established by the department/program faculty in consultation with the Dean. The consultation shall be transparent and inclusive of all faculty in the department/program and allow sufficient time for faculty input. Members of the search committee may include full-time and part-time faculty, classified staff, students, and/or administrators. Members of the search committee may be from either campus. The majority of the search committee shall be faculty. To serve on the Search committee, faculty must be from the discipline or a related discipline and must be either part-time faculty with reemployment preference, full-time tenured faculty, or tenure-track faculty in Phase 3 of their probationary period. When clear and compelling academic and/or professional circumstances warrant, other faculty may be included on the Search Committee after consultation between the President of the Academic Senate and the college President. Special circumstances may include, but are not limited to, the addition of

An Equal Opportunity Representative from outside of the department/program shall be appointed to the Committee by the College diversity office. If the College diversity office is unable to assign a Representative, one may be appointed by the Vice Chancellor of Human Resources and Equal Opportunity or his/her designee.

Every effort must be made to incorporate broad representation on every Search Committee to bring a variety of perspectives to the assessment of applicant qualifications. The Academic Senates shall consider diversity, equity, and discipline/program recommendations when confirming faculty appointments to search committees.

The membership of the Search Committee is also submitted to the college diversity office by the Division Dean. In the event that diversity is not reflected in the Search Committee, the Committee chair and the President of the Academic Senate (or their designees) shall meet with the diversity coordinator who will assist in the identification and recruitment of faculty who may or may not be members of an underrepresented group but who clearly embrace the concepts of diversity and equal opportunity to serve on the Committee. Additional faculty members identified through this process must be confirmed by the Academic Senate.

The Division Dean normally serves as chair of the committee.

The Search Committee should normally have no more than seven (7) members.

discipline expertise and enhancing the diversity of the committee. The appropriate academic senate representative shall forward a list of faculty designated to serve on the Search Committee to the Academic Senate. All faculty appointments to Search Committees must be confirmed by the Academic Senate before the search committee begins its work. Students may be included as full members of the hiring committee or in limited-capacity roles, such as giving input during interviews, teaching demonstrations or open forums. Students wishing to serve on a faculty hiring committee will be appointed by Student Government (DASG/ASFC) and must be in good academic standing and enrolled in at least eight (8) units (or the equivalent, to be determined in collaboration with the search committee chair and appropriate DSP&S/DRC designee). Any student serving on the full search committee shall not be enrolled in courses in the department during the hiring process.

APM SUGGESTED EDIT: Students may be included as full members of the hiring committee or in limited-capacity roles, such as giving input during interviews, teaching demonstrations or open forums. Students wishing to serve on a faculty hiring committee will be appointed by Student Government (DASG/ASFC) and must be in good academic standing and enrolled in at least eight (8) units (or the equivalent, to be determined in collaboration with the search committee chair and appropriate DSP&S/DRC designee). Any student serving on the full search committee must be a current student in good standing and shall not be enrolled in courses in the department during the hiring process, and they must commit to doing the required HR equity training to serve on the committee as well as attend all committee meetings.

De Anza AS passed this wording at Feb 7 meeting: "Students may serve on the hiring committee only in limited-capacity roles, such as giving input during, teaching demonstrations or open forums and may not be part of the initial screening of application materials to protect the students' time and the applicants' privacy."

Foothill AS March 2022 Resolution:

RESOLVED, that the Foothill College Academic Senate strongly advocates for the inclusion of students on faculty hiring committees, including both Search (first round) and Selection (second round) Committees;

RESOLVED, that the Foothill Academic Senate direct its officers and representatives serving on governance committees responsible for approving districtwide policies and administrative procedures to contribute to strengthening language in these policies and procedures that:

1. affirms the students' right to serve as a full member of faculty hiring committees, and clarifies it's the hiring chairs' responsibility to seek out student participation on every committee through established processes approved by ASFC;

2. establishes the support and resources students need to serve on these committees effectively;

3. addresses identified barriers hiring committees may face when incorporating students into the search and selection process;

RESOLVED, that the Foothill Academic Senate partners with the College and District Administration and the Foothill Office of Professional Development to identify effective practices for inclusion of students in the full-time faculty search and selection process, and develop the training needed to deepen the understanding of the value of student participation and strengthen the commitment to these practices by all faculty hiring committee members.

An Equal Opportunity Representative from outside of the division shall be appointed to the Committee by the District Human Resources office. The Equal Opportunity Representative shall be a full-time employee or a part-time faculty employee.

To ensure a variety of perspectives, the Academic Senate shall consider diversity, equity, and discipline/program recommendations when confirming faculty appointments to search committees.

The Division Dean normally serves as chair of the committee. Faculty in the hiring department should conduct a transparent and inclusive process to determine whether to include students as full members of the hiring committee or in a limited-capacity role, such as giving input during interviews, teaching demonstrations, or open forums, and they must inform the Dean at least two weeks in advance of the Dean's formation of the hiring committee. DASG/ASFC will be given at least two weeks to appoint a student who meets the condition of serving on the committee.

The membership of the Search Committee is submitted to Human Resources to ensure that the committee is sufficiently broad. When Human Resources determines that broad representation is not reflected in the Search Committee membership, the hiring administrator shall meet with Human Resources who will assist in the identification and recruitment of additional employees who clearly embrace the concepts of equity, diversity, and equal opportunity to serve on the Committee

Training All faculty, staff and administrators involved in faculty hiring must receive training on equal opportunity, diversity and the employment process for each Search Committee on which they serve. Such training will be provided by the Vice Chancellor of Human Resources and Equal Opportunity or his/her designee at the first meeting of the Committee. Follow-up questions may be used if they are based directly on a candidate's response to a question, if they do not seek information outside of the scope of the established hiring criteria, if they are not in violation of equal opportunity guidelines, and if they do not unnecessarily prolong the interview.
8. Document assessment of candidates' performance in the interview.
9. Conduct reference checks on candidates selected as finalists.
 - a. Identify members of the committee to conduct the reference calls
 - b. Formulate questions to ask references
 - c. Identify references to be called to eliminate duplicate calls
 - d. Determine how information is to be shared with full Search Committee and forwarded to Selection Committee
10. Recommend two or more finalists for consideration by the President. All recommended finalists must be acceptable to the Search Committee since only a candidate recommended by the Search Committee will be hired. An unranked list of final candidates is forwarded to the President.
11. Each member of the Search Committee is responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of the interviews as well as evaluative comments made during the selection process. 9. Document/record assessment of candidates in the interview process.
10. Recommend the final candidate(s) (preferably more than one) for consideration by the Selection Committee. Recommended finalists must be acceptable to the majority of the Search Committee members since only a candidate recommended by the Search Committee may be hired. The President, Vice Chancellor, and Chancellor are the only individuals who can make an exception to this recommendation process.
11. Each member of the Search Committee is responsible for maintaining ongoing confidentiality of the entire process. Process

Recruitment and Advertising

Faculty positions are advertised for a minimum of eight weeks. In unusual or extenuating circumstances, the time frame may be reduced to not less than six weeks with the approval of the President and the Vice Chancellor of Human Resources and Equal Opportunity.

Position announcements are mailed to colleges, universities and organizations committed to providing equal employment opportunities to a wide range of applicants.

PROCESS

Recruitment and Advertising

Faculty positions are advertised for a minimum of six (6) weeks from the date posted to the District HR website. In unusual or extenuating circumstances, the time frame may be reduced to not less than four (4) weeks with the approval of the President and the Vice Chancellor of Human Resources and Equal Opportunity.

The hiring search committee in conjunction with Employment Services will review existing division employee data and college student demographics. In order to create a diverse candidate pool, appropriate recruitment and advertising strategies must be implemented. To that end, position announcements are provided to colleges, universities, and organizations committed to providing equal employment opportunities to a wide range of applicants and to organizations committed to serving underrepresented populations.

In addition positions are advertised locally and in professional journals and related publications, in The Chronicle of Higher Education and on the Internet as recommended by the Search Committee, department faculty and the College President. Department/program faculty and administrators are expected to contact appropriate organizations to assist in identifying qualified candidates and to disseminate information regarding the position.	In addition, position announcements are posted to online recruitment sites identified as part of “core advertising” strategies, and in alignment with the District’s Employment and Opportunity Plan, and are advertised locally and in professional journals and related publications and on internet sites as recommended by the Search Committee, department faculty and the College President. Department/program faculty and administrators are also encouraged to contact appropriate organizations to assist in identifying qualified candidates and to disseminate information regarding the position. Recruitment and advertising strategies are intended to result in a strong pool of candidates that are both diverse and qualified. To that end, position announcements are posted to sites that will best serve these goals and may include colleges, universities, and other organizations committed to serving underrepresented candidates.

Additional steps may include a discussion with the Vice Chancellor of Human Resources and Equal Employment Opportunity representative or their designee and/or a diversity officer regarding the overall composition of the applicant pool and the screening criteria or procedures that have failed to produce a diverse applicant pool.

The Search Committee will consider the following options:

- Review the applicant pool to ensure that qualified applicants have not been overlooked;
- If applicable, request to have any additional complete applications that have been submitted since the first review date forwarded for screening;
- Request that Employment Services contact applicants with incomplete applications to request the missing application materials;
- Extend the search by posting a new submission deadline
- Begin a new search

Interviews

Interviews are scheduled by the Chair of the Search Committee. Each candidate must be provided the same interview information and offered a choice of interview times whenever possible.

All members of the Search Committee must be present for all interviews. If a member misses an interview, that committee member is removed from the Search Committee. If the Committee member is to be replaced by a faculty employee, the appointment must be confirmed by the Academic Senate.

Each member of the Committee documents the interview in a format agreed upon by the Committee.

After interviews are completed members of the Search Committee discuss and evaluate the qualifications of the candidates including how candidates will meet the needs of a diverse student population.

Interviews

Interviews are scheduled by the Chair of the Search and/or Selection Committee. Each candidate must be provided the same interview information about the interview process and offered a choice of interview times whenever possible.

NOTE: Only members of the Search Committee are present for interviews and all members of the Search Committee must be present for all interviews. If a member misses an interview, that committee member is removed from the Search Committee. If an E/O rep misses an interview, their duties may be assigned to an existing member of the committee pending approval of HR.

Each member of the Search and Selection Committee documents the interview in a format agreed upon by the Committee.

Follow-up questions directed to the candidate during the interview must only be done in order to clarify an answer given.

If the Search Committee is not satisfied with the interviewed candidates, the Committee may: review the applicant pool to ensure that qualified applicants have not been overlooked; if applicable, request to have any additional complete applications that have been submitted since the first review date forwarded for screening; request that Employment Services contact applicants with incomplete applications to request the missing application materials; or extend or re-open the search. The Search Committee identifies two or more candidates to meet with the Selection Committee for further assessment.

The Equal Opportunity Representative reviews the finalist pool to determine whether any selection criteria or procedures used in the interview phase has had an adverse impact on any monitored group. If the Equal Opportunity Representative believes that adverse impact exists, he/she shall consult with the Committee Chair, the diversity coordinator and the Vice Chancellor of Human Resources and Equal Opportunity (or designee) to determine whether additional steps should be taken to ensure equal employment opportunity.

After interviews are completed, members of the Search and/or Selection Committee discuss and evaluate the qualifications of the candidates including how candidates will meet the needs of our diverse student population. Evaluations of candidates must be limited to responses to questions in the interview and submitted materials. Other information about a candidate is only to be shared as part of the reference checking process.

The Equal Opportunity Representative reviews the finalist pool to determine whether any criteria or procedures used in the interview phase may have had an adverse impact on any group. If the Equal Opportunity Representative believes that adverse impact exists, they shall report the concern to the Committee Chair and Vice Chancellor of Human Resources/Equal Opportunity, or the assigned designee to determine whether additional steps should be taken to ensure equal opportunity. Consultation may also include a diversity coordinator. At that time the decision will be made as whether to proceed with the recommendation to the selection committee.

In the event that the search process is unsuccessful, the Search committee will consider one or more of the following options:

- Re-interview finalists
- Review the applicant pool to ensure that qualified applicants have not been overlooked;
- If applicable, request to have any additional complete applications that have been submitted since the first review date forwarded for screening;
- Request that Employment Services contact applicants with incomplete applications to request the missing application materials;
- Extend the search by posting a new submission deadline
- Begin a new search

In the event that the selection process is unsuccessful, the Selection Committee will consider one or more of the following options:

- Re-interview finalists
- Request the search committee review the applicant pool to ensure that qualified applicants have not been overlooked
- If applicable the President/Vice Chancellor/Chancellor may refer the process back to the Search Committee to request Employment Services:
- refer additional complete applications that have been submitted since the first review date forwarded for screening, and interview additional candidates;
- contact applicants with incomplete applications to request the missing application materials and refer new complete applications for screening, and interview additional candidates; or

An unranked list of finalists is forwarded to the President who convenes the Selection Committee. The Search Committee Chair returns all the screening and interview forms and all other non-finalists application materials to Employment Services.

All members of the Selection Committee must be present for all interviews and subsequent discussions. If a member misses an interview he/she is removed from the Committee.

Reference Checking

Reference checks must be completed in accordance with the policies and principles of equal opportunity. Reference information must be held in strict confidence within the committee.

- Extend, cancel or re-open the search.
- Proceed with selection of a final candidate.

Absent extenuating circumstances described in writing to the president, the Search Committee identifies at least two candidates to meet with the Selection Committee for further assessment.

An unranked list of finalists is forwarded to the President who convenes the Selection Committee. The Search Committee Chair collects and returns all screening and interview materials, including electronic materials, to Employment Services. The Search Committee Chair instructs all committee members to permanently delete all applications materials, after submitting a copy to the Chair.

Reference Checking

References checks are performed for the purposes of affirming the selection of the final candidate. An objective, written report of reference responses must be completed and shared with the College President and/or Vice Chancellor of Human Resources. Should information discovered in reference checking serve to eliminate the candidate from consideration the President, Vice Chancellor or Chancellor has the option to perform reference checks on the secondary candidate.

First-hand knowledge of a candidate may be shared by a committee member only if it pertains to the individual's ability to successfully perform the functions of the position. Any information that has the potential to negatively impact a candidate should be verified via additional sources. Committee members should approach the Equal Opportunity Representative if there is uncertainty regarding the pertinence of the information.

Reference checks are normally performed by the Hiring Manager following the selection committee process. Under unusual circumstances and when requested by the hiring manager, reference checks

	may be conducted by one or more committee members. Reference checks must be completed in accordance with the policies and principles of equal opportunity. Reference information must be held in strict confidence by the hiring manager, and by the committee when the committee is requested to conduct the reference checks.
