

Proposed District Policy for Program Discontinuance

Each college will implement a policy and procedure for program discontinuance that will be based on collegial collaboration between faculty and administration. These must include mechanisms to identify and evaluate potential district-wide consequences, and specify the points and mechanisms by which the two colleges will communicate regarding any potential program discontinuance.

DRAFT