

22-23 Annual Progress Report

Recommended actions for improvement identified in the 5-Year Self-Study.

- develop an additional course focused on how indigenous and diasporic people have articulated both belonging and separateness from the United States
- Class size reduction from 50 to 35 to close the achievement gap

Actions taken and progress made in accomplishing the improvement.

- developed two new courses: HUMN 10: On the Move: The Immigrant Experience in Literature, Film and Multimedia & HUMN 14: The Art of Peace: Narrative Representations of Pacifism
- Reduced class size from 50 to 35

Evidence used to evaluate progress.

(ex: What data are you using to make your progress judgment?)

Class reduction went into effect in Spring 2022. It is of yet too early to have meaningful data on the impact this reduction has had on closing the achievement gap. HUMN 10 & HUMN 14 have not yet been taught.

New trends, policies, or state initiatives that have impacted your actions for improvement.

None

Actions needed/designed to address the area of work/improvement for new trends, policies, or state initiatives.

Collect and evaluate data. Schedule HUMN 10 & HUMN 14 in 2023.

This form is completed and ready for acceptance.
